Art in every age of which we have any history, it may serve as a guide to such authors as contain information on subjects relating to it of which he may be in search. The chief qualifications required of the author were diligence and care, and on these points he can assure his readers that he sought his references in the original authorities but in such instances as he has otherwise specified, and where he has relied upon others, it has been on such as are known to be trustworthy. Among his guides to such authorities he has particularly to acknowledge his obligations to Wesions Tract s, Professor Martyn8 edition of Miller s Gardeners Dic Unary, Walls s Dib Uotheca Srilannica and to 1 Amdons Encyclopedia Gardenifig. The authors reasons for fixing upon the reign of Edward the III, Elizabeth, and George the I, as eras in the History of our national Gardening are founded upon an attentive examination of our annals, and most of them will be developed in the body of the work whilst considering the literature of Gardening.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
