

Garden Decorating: How to Add Beauty, Structure, and Function to Your Garden (Better Homes & Gardens)

These days, the yard is a palette for personal expression. And decorating in the garden is as mainstream as entertaining outdoors. Garden Decorating demonstrates how to translate interior style and design to exterior spaces. Ahead-of-the-crowd ideas satisfy creative urges: Build fire pits, rain chains, and garden-hose fountains. Utilize architectural salvage. Showcase antique garden furnishings. Turn garden trimmings into graceful trellises. New approaches appeal to gardeners and decorators alike. Feature furnishings and art. Design with garden objects. Emphasize livability. Prioritize low maintenance. Outdoor decor to make the yard look and feel even more like home. Personal style. Structural elements. Ornamentation. Functional embellishments.
